

Where each mechanism's literature is thicker or thinner than its own marginals predict

Grey = expectation below 20 articles, where a ratio describes a handful. Labels shown only at 3x or 0.2x.
 Colour is NOT article count: a count heatmap reproduces the product of the marginals and shows only which rows and columns are large.